When the Edmund Fitzgerald began sailing in 1958, she was the largest Great Lakes ship ever launched. She often set haul records. Her sinking, with the entire crew of 29, on November 10, 1975 still puzzles many to this day. Several prevailing theories on her loss will be presented by a speaker from the National Museum of the Great Lakes in Toledo, Ohio. Everyone is welcome to this free event!

The St. Clair Shores Historical Commission is pleased to announce the latest in the annual series of lectures in memory of Elizabeth Blay Maison. Elizabeth's daughter, Lorelei Maison Rockwell and her husband, Wayne Kennedy, have underwritten three lectures on topics such as local history and genealogy to be held each fall.
