Present

“Behind The Seen Talk”

A Free Lecture

By a trained DIA Speakers Bureau guide

Topic: Let me tell you a story

Making meaning of the world around us is a basic behavior and most cultures throughout time have used art to teach essential beliefs and understandings. At this talk, explore the many ways visual artists use stories as the source of inspiration for their work.

Watch for future DIA and other informative talks to be presented by the Cultural Committee.

Tuesday – July 20 - 7 P.M.

This talk will be presented via ZOOM.
