

SEED BOMBS

PRESENTED BY
THE CLINTON RIVER WATERSHED COUNCIL

THURSDAY, APRIL 6
2:00 PM OR 3:00 PM
REGISTRATION BEGINS MARCH 20

Children ages 5 and up and their adult are invited to create seed bombs at a fun, hands-on, messy, free program. Presenters from the Clinton River Watershed Council will share information about native plants and why they are so important. Then, everyone will make seed balls using potting soil, natural clay powder, seeds, and a little water. Registration is required and can be done in person, via phone 586-771-9020, or via email SCSYouth@libcoop.net. Space is limited.
