

The St Clair Shores Cultural Committee Presents

SUMMER DREAMS—THE STORY OF BOB-LO ISLAND

Monday, May 22, 2023, 6:30 p.m.

At the St. Clair Shores Public Library

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED—only 50 seats available.

Patrick Livingston is a Detroit native who regularly visited Bob-Lo Island until it closed in 1993.

Livingston will discuss the Island's early history, with an emphasis on its 95-year history as an amusement park.

One of the highlights of Livingston's early life was being hired as a crew member of the Bob-Lo boat SS Columbia, one of the ships he profiled in his book Eight Steamboats—Sailing through the Sixties, selected as a Michigan Notable Book of 2005. Livingston's second book, Summer Dreams—the Story of Bob-Lo Island, was selected as a Michigan Notable Book in 2009.

Registration for this event begins on May 1, 2023, at the SCS Public Library.

“Like” the SCS Cultural Committee on Facebook
<https://www.facebook.com/>